

David Brewer MA, LPC, CFLE

Dave Brewer is Director of Learning for Every Child Succeeds. His work includes the design and implementation of dynamic training programs for the ECS professional staff.

Dave's education includes degrees in psychology, community counseling, and business administration. He has had the opportunity to interact with families as a counselor, a mediator, child and family therapist, and group parent for abused and neglected teens.

Dave has been with the ECS team since the program's outset, offering the first home visitor training in November of 1998. Dave is an experienced trainer and has presented workshops across the country. He has been interviewed on TV and radio for his expertise in helping children cope with family changes. Dave is a licensed professional counselor and serves as the Director of Learning for Beech Acres Parenting Center, a family service agency in Greater Cincinnati. Dave is the father of four children as well as a recent proud grandfather.
