

Margaret J. Clark, MPA

Margaret J. Clark, senior program operations director, received her B.A. in English from Xavier University and her Master of Public Administration from the University of Cincinnati. A 20+ year employee of United Way of Greater Cincinnati, Margaret has spent her career working in children's services, ranging from directing a Montessori preschool to overseeing funding for residential treatment centers for abused children and youth development organizations.

Margaret was on the staff team that launched Every Child Succeeds in 1999 and has continued her commitment to the mission. Margaret has led numerous successful initiatives focused on children and has extensive experience in non-profit management, community planning, program planning, implementation, and evaluation.

Margaret was a member of Leadership Cincinnati Class XXXI. She was also recognized as a 2008 Wise Woman Honoree.